Re: Securities & Exchange Commission vs. Robert E. Lane, Wealth Pools
Int'l, Inc./ Case No.: 6:07-cv-1920-ORLI-22-KRS
United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida

Dear Investor:

On October 4, 2009, by Order of the above-referenced Court, I have been substituted as the Receiver for Wealth Pools International, Inc. and Recruit for Wealth, Inc. (collectively "WPI"). The purpose of this letter is to introduce myself and to advise you of the most recent filings that have taken place together with the proposed plan going forward in an attempt to bring money into the receivership estate.

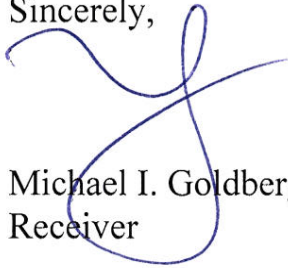

Consent Judgments have been entered against the relief Defendants, Richard Lane, Robert Lane, Renee Becker, Julia Lane and T-N-T Education Company. The Final Judgments are being posted to the Wealth Pools Website. Pursuant to the Consent Judgments, I am hopeful that additional monies will be available for the receivership estate. This will take some time as some of the assets which are the subject of the Consent Judgments will need to be liquidated. The changing market conditions may significantly impact the amount of actual recovery versus the appraised value of the assets.

Finally, our preliminary review of the claims show that people are claiming that they are owed over $66 million from Wealth Pools. You will see that any distribution of assets will likely be only pennies on the dollar based upon the amount of the assets that we have actually recovered and the anticipated amount of recovery pursuant to the Consent Judgments described about. Any distribution of assets will not occur for many, many months, if at all.

If you have any questions, please feel free to call 1-866-204-4801 or write to: Michael I. Goldberg, Receiver Wealth Pools International, Inc. and Recruit for Wealth, Inc. 350 Las Olas Blvd., Las Olas Centre II, Suite 1600, Ft. Lauderdale, Florida 33301-2229.

Sincerely,

Michael I. Goldberg
Receiver
